

Suffolk Community Strings

We are a string orchestra based in Felixstowe comprising of players of varying abilities. New members (Grade 4+; no auditions) are always welcome.

We meet weekly on Monday evenings, from 7.30-9.30pm, at Kingsfleet Primary School, Ferry Road, Felixstowe.

Visit our website – www.SuffolkCommunityStrings.onesuffolk.net – for more information.

Felixstowe Children's Choir

The ethos of the choir is to encourage children in Felixstowe to enjoy singing together whilst, at the same time, learning to sing in parts and achieve a high level in performance.

We rehearse on Saturday mornings, from 11am-12noon, at St. Peter & St. Paul Church in Old Felixstowe.

Email felixstowechildrenchoir@gmail.com for more information.

Kaye Stone

Kaye studied the cello and piano at the Royal Welsh College of Music & Drama where she specialised in Early Music and the baroque cello. She has since gained a PGCE from Homerton College, Cambridge, and has worked at local secondary schools as a Head of Music. Currently, she is Assistant Headteacher at Ipswich High School. As well as the two groups mentioned above, Kaye also runs the Orwell Connection Choir based in Felixstowe.
